KISSING IN PUBLIC.

Because, it is alleged, he took the liberty of kissing a pretty brunette employed in his office in the capacity of a servant, Dr. W. Y. Canada, a dentist, of Danville, was fined $7.50 and costs in the Mayor's Court, yesterday. The woman in the case was Mrs. Nannie Lamb, wife of Carl Lamb, who recently moved to that city from Petersburg. It is understood that the Lambs have been living apart for sometime. She was also fined, her assessment being $5 and costs.

The "kissing bee" is alleged to have occurred in the office of Dr. Canada, on a second floor on Main street, and was witnessed by quite a number of people passing by.

The technical charge against the doctor and the brunette was misconduct in a public place, and in accordance with the verdict handed down by Mayor Wooding, kissing is tabooed in places where the public may see the sight, and, if done at all, must be done in private.

Quite a number of witnesses were examined. Mrs. Lamb was attractively attired in a white walking dress, which formed a striking antithesis to her jet-black eyes. She wore a hat trimmed with luxuriant colors. His attorneys contended that kissing a fair one in a man's private office was no crime.

Dr. Canada has been a citizen of Danville for many years. He enjoys a large practice in his profession, and this was his first appearance in the Mayor's Court on any charge.

WOMAN FOUND DEAD IN WOODS.

By the finding of the partly mutilated body of a young white woman in a lonely portion of the woods near Shady Side Park, at Westport, near Baltimore, yesterday afternoon, the Mount Winans police believe they have a murder mystery to solve. The dead woman is said to be Mamie Wilson, 28 years old, a frequenter of the resorts in that section of Baltimore county.

About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon the hired man, after finishing his task of cutting grass in a field belonging to his employer, returning by way of the woods adjoining Shady Side Park. When about one-half way through the woods he noticed the body of the woman.

The lower clothing of the woman had been torn off and tied about her waist, while the upper part of her wearing apparel had been stripped from her in a like manner, and wrapped about the arms and neck.

TAFT'S STEAMER FIRED ON.

It became known publicly yesterday that the steamer Island Queen, which last night conveyed Judge Taft and a distinguished party, including the notification committee, up the Ohio river, was fired upon by an unknown man on a shanty boat moored on the Ohio side of the river opposite Dayton, Ky.

Several shots from the spent charge hit, but did not seriously injure, Mrs. Charles B. Russell, of Cincinnati, who was standing with her husband near the rail on the deck directly below where Mr. Taft was at the time standing.

Very few of those on the steamer knew of the occurrence, and Judge Taft was not told.

The Island Queen had steamed slowly around the bend, at Dayton, Ky., and was near the middle of the river when persons leaning on the starboard rail saw a man emerge from the cabin of a shanty boat moored on the Ohio bank and fire a shotgun. He was in his shirt sleeves and wore a straw hat.

Mrs. Russell gave a scream and said she had been shot. She was hurried into the cabin, where it was found she was not seriously injured. One shot had penetrated the skin over her left eye, and another had struck her on the chin.

The distance from the shore was so great that the charge of shot had almost spent itself when it reached the boat. A large number of the pellets pierced her dress. A young man standing by Mrs. Russell's chair was also hit by one of the shot, but he was not hurt.

The officers of the boat said they would make an investigation to learn the identity of the man who fired the gun. C. B. Russell said today:

"I was standing at my wife's side, but none of the shot struck me. It was lucky we were not closer to the Ohio shore. I saw the man plainly, and at first thought him merly an enthusiastic celebrater. I do not like to believe that the shot was fired with malicious intent, and it may have been only chance that the spent charge struck just below where Judge Taft was sitting."

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is especially good for piles. Recommended and sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Tomorrow, Friday, Is REMNANT DAY.

A remnant day is to us what house-cleaning is to housekeepers—a time for clearing up and closing out.

Tomorrow, however, is an unusually important one—to us, because we want to close out completely every remnant in the house in order to start the new week with a fresh, complete, up-to-date stock—to you, because to accomplish this we must necessarily make the prices very low.

Half prices are the rule. Less than half for many things. The goods are the broken lots, odds and ends, short lengths, and the like from the week just ending. Some few are soiled or mussed, but the majority are fresh and seasonable, and the collection as a whole is better, more worthy of thoughtful attention, and easier to buy than for many a day past.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 30, 1908.

THE Alexandria military company and other state troops are now in camp at Chickamauga learning the art of war without being shot at, however. The militia and the regulars are thrown together in the same camp in order that the former may be taught real soldiery. The citizen soldiery is a very different thing from what it was twenty-five years ago. Then belonging to a militia company was little more than belonging to a club. The principal function was to appear occasionally in a uniform that would scare horses and to parade the town behind a brass band, to the infinite delight of all the small boys. The annual encampment was a vacation picnic. There was drill in the manual of arms, all of which can be learned in a few days. There was marching and counter-marching by companies, and occasionally there were battalion evolutions. It was a lark, and it wasn't much else. It is a good deal more than a lark now. The fancy uniforms have not entirely disappeared, but they don't go to the encampments. Not a single regiment, but a brigade or a division is assembled in camp. There are regular troops. The militia pitch their tents. In many cases they reach the camps by marches of considerable length and no military exercise is more important than the ability to march. They dig trenches and throw up breastworks. They do picket duty and night marching. They ford rivers, or build bridges over them. They scout. They go through all the motions of attacking the enemy or of outflanking him or carrying rifle pits. They have real field maneuvers, as nearly as possible such as they would have it called into active service. If there should be war this country would have to depend mainly upon the citizen soldiery and the militia of most of the states is now getting practical instruction in the belligerent arts. If it should have to go into service it would not be thoroughly trained, but it would be very considerably trained and would be ready immediately to garrison the fortifications, and it would need but little training to make it as effective as the regular force. Officers and men would be prepared to be immediately useful.

IT HAS again become evident that "spanking" Castro is an operation much easier to talk about than to accomplish. Holland may now have to sit down to think over a way to correct or punish the peppery little Venezuelan president, thereby putting herself in the class with the United States and France. The dispatch of the Gelderland, it is announced, does not mean bombardment but merely "protection of Dutch interests." Venezuelan ports may not be attacked because Great Britain, Germany and Italy have a mortgage on the revenues, which blockade or bombardment would shut off. Diplomatically speaking, the situation is delicate, but not grave. The United States, by its objections to having Great Britain, Germany and Italy seize customs houses and hold them for the collection of their debts by force, was forced to provide some other means of collecting them, the result being the treaties which now make it impossible for either Holland, France or herself to take Castro in hand. Castro may or may not be "pestiferous" and "unreasonable," but that he is contending for principles which he believes to be right is unquestioned, and for this quality he should be commended rather than condemned.

"WE HAVE never been more in need of an awakening among the people to the necessity of clean politics, both in theory and practice," is an extract from a letter received yesterday by the boy residents of the Winona, Ind., Boy City from Vice President Fairbanks. His letter continues: "There are too many who profess decency on politics, but who do not carry propositions into effect." How about that political trick that Vice President Fairbanks played on a blind member of the United States Senate?

WORD has been sent out from Washington that when the national republican organization is in complete working order for the presidential campaign, two of its most component parts will be a labor bureau and a negro bureau. The first will be especially charged with looking after the labor vote, and the second will devote its entire time and attention to keeping the negroes in line for Taft and Sherman. The laboring men in all probability will resent this announcement.

THE night riders have warned the Illinois Central Railroad Company in western Kentucky that if they continue to harbor state troops on their property they can expect to see it destroyed. This is as bad as a "black hand" threat and should be resented by every honest man in Kentucky.

Twenty clerks who had been employed at the bureau of the census on the Cuban census work were dropped from the rolls of that institution Tuesday.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

J. G. A. Leishman, American ambassador to Turkey, reports to the State Department that general amnesty for political prisoners has been proclaimed, and that those imprisoned are being released. He says that the change, referring to the re-establishment of a constitutional government in the Ottoman empire has been brought about with comparatively little bloodshed, although he says it is too early to determine whether the new machinery of the government will run without conflict or disturbance. Changes in the ministry are taking place, and efforts are being made to have some of the palace entourage displaced. The populace, he says, openly charge the palace camarilla with unscrupulousness and appear to regard it as responsible for past ills.

Solicitor General Hoyt returned to Washington today from Lenox, Mass., where he attended the conference, called by Attorney General Bonaparte to determine upon the government's course in further prosecution of the Standard Oil Company for accepting rebates. According to the plans agreed upon by the legal lights, the government will file a motion for a reargument before the Circuit Court of Appeals, in Chicago, of the $29,000,000 fine case. The application for the reargument must be presented to the Circuit Court before August 20 and the government will probably require all that time to prepare the document. After the government's application for reargument is filed, the Standard Oil representatives will be given twenty days in which to reply. Should the application for reargument be denied, the government plans to ask the Supreme Court of the United States to order the Circuit Court to send the record up for review. This action could be taken within a year, but it is believed that the government would present such a request to the Supreme Court when it convenes October 12.

Officers of the signal corps of the army assisted Capt. Baldwin today in his preparations for his experimental flight with his dirigible balloon which he has contracted for delivery to the army. The remainder of the week is being devoted to experimenting with the manufacture of hydrogen and the inflation of the balloon bag to determine lifting power and the proper working of the propelling and steering apparatus. The inventor will made his first flight from Fort Myer Monday, but several other ascentions will probably be made before he begins his official trial under the observation of the military board.

At a meeting of the directors and vice-presidents of the Appalachian National Association here today, D. A. Tompkins, of Charlotte, N. C., was unanimously elected president of the Association. Mr. Tompkins is connected with several daily papers in the South.

Arraigned in police court at Norfolk yesterday on two charges of embezzlement, William B. Lightly, former cashier of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, was held for trial in the Corporation Court. Witnesses testified that Lightly's books show a total shortage of upwards of $35,000.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant, this week, to citizens of this State, of the following patents: E. J. Funk, of Singer Glen, instrument to cure gapes; A. L. Smith, of Richmond, attachment for printing-presses; N. E. Woods, of Richmond, drill rocket.

WHOLESALERS BARRED.

The State Corporation Commission has refused to rehear the Roanoke liquor cases, handing down an opinion yesterday to that effect.

The petition to reopen the case was made by the Robert Portner Brewing Company, of Alexandria, and is final so far as the commission is concerned.

Some months ago the liquor dealers of the city of Roanoke brought a suit against the express companies doing business in the city of Roanoke to compel the companies to receive and transport liquor from that city to points along the Norfolk and Western Railroad at which local option prevailed. The express companies declined to handle the stuff, holding that it was obeying the law in refusing to transport such liquors because of the fact that the sale or delivery of the liquors was prohibited by ordinances of the towns of Glade Spring, Radford, Saltville and Marion, as well as other places.

The commission, after a careful hearing of the case, ordered that the express companies were required to handle such shipments when made by retail dealers and consigned to parties along the line of the Norfolk and Western Railroad. The commission held that wholesale dealers and manufacturers could not make such shipments, thus debarring distillers and brewers from selling to such points.

The Portner Brewing Company's agent at Roanoke had made the company a party to the suit, and it is said that this was without the knowledge of the company. The suit was brought to have the case reopened, the claim being that the decision was error and that brewers and distillers should be given the same right to sell to parties in the dry towns that had been extended to the retailers of the Magic City.

The petition to reopen the case was made several days ago, and the commission yesterday announced its decision by refusing to rehear the matter.

It is possible that the case may yet be appealed by the communities involved. The Roanoke dealers, as a consequence of the decision of the commission, are selling a good deal of liquor in the "dry communities involved.

Schultze left the bank suddenly while Bank Examiner Merton was making the semi-annual inspection.

Joseph Chamberlain, who returned from the continent on Tuesday and is remaining in London for a few days on his way to Birmingham, is reported to be in a very grave condition. His eyesight has become seriously affected. Even if Mr. Chamberlain has sufficient strength to travel to Birmingham, it is believed to be extremely doubtful if he will ever leave England again.

H. Chidester, 80 years old, of Romney, W. Va., a well-known deaf mute, was instantly killed near the Romney depot yesterday by a passenger engine backing over him. He had gone to meet some relatives, and had sent them ahead in a carriage. He was many years a teacher for the deaf-and-dumb at Romney, and leaves a widow and three daughters.

Lige Nelms, a nonunion miner at the Pratt mines, Ala., was fired on late yesterday afternoon as he was going to work. He returned the fire until he dropped dead in his tracks. Deputies and others who rushed to the scene found Ed. Miller, union miner, seriously wounded and another union miner shot in the head. A posse is looking for more men.

Bishop Brent, of Manila, twice elected to the bishopric of Washington, made vacant by the death of Bishop Satterlee, has arrived in Vancouver, B. C., and is speeding to Boston. It is believed by some Washingtonians that notwithstanding his declination to accept the bishopric when first elected, Bishop Brent will accept the position.

The Southern Railway has already begun to prepare against a car shortage and to be in readiness to move this year's cotton crop, which, from all indications, will be the largest in the country's history. The road's officials are now in conference in Washington considering the best means of conserving the interests of labor on the various roads in addition to making preparations for this year's crop.

It is proposed to establish an open market for newspaper print paper in New York. An auction sale of 100 tons of news print paper in carload lots is announced for August 5 by John Norris, of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association. Frequent similar auction sales are to follow. It is believed that this will have the effect of making a fixed price and stop the business of selling at secret rates.

By relieving Rear Admiral Sir Percy Scott of the command of the cruiser squadron and commissioning him to command a small squadron that will visit South Africa in the autumn, naval experts are agreed that the admiralty had taken the first step in clearing up the feud that threatens the British navy. The next step, it is hinted, will be the acceptance of the resignation of Admiral Charles Beresford, which, it is believed, has either been handed in or will be called for soon.

Today's Telegraphic News

When Joseph Dies.

Vienna, July 30.—Realizing that when Francis Joseph, the aged emperor of Austria, dies the political balance of Europe is likely to be upset, the European nations are today keeping a "death watch" on the emperor.

They have not gone to the limit of Turkey who had a secret service agent shadowing the emperor at Ischl, his summer home, but when the sultan attempted to do openly, the other powers are doing with secrecy.

The key note to the present European situation is the half open, half veiled antagonism between England and Germany. England is mustering every possible power to maintain her predominance and Germany is striving to obstruct this policy and to gain the position England now holds.

France, Russia and Spain are friendly to England and it is believed in the event of a crisis Portugal, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and even Italy could be won to the English side. The kaiser's only avowed friends is Emperor Joseph.

To prevent such a coalition against him there is little doubt that the kaiser would quickly declare war against one or more of his unfriendly neighbors. With the death of Francis Joseph the session of Hungary from Austria will be inevitable and a conflict will result. The temptation to take advantage of such a war to gratify their own ambitions would probably be too great for other European powers to withstand.

Fight at a Lynching.

Pensacola, Fla., July 30—Several men were fatally wounded here today, three are dead and a score of others are seriously hurt after a pitched battle which resulted in lynching a negro, Leander Shaw, who attacked Mrs. Lillian Davis near here. After Shaw's capture a mob of more than a thousand persons stood about the jail more than two hours before the attack began. Then a railroad iron was procured and a dozen men started to swing it against the iron gate of the jail yard.

When the attempt to get the negro began the sheriff and a half a dozen deputies stood in windows with rifles and revolvers and all appeals to let the law take its course being unheeded they opened fire. Their shots were returned by the mob and two deputies fell wounded but the crowd fell back with one dead and many wounded by the deputies' bullets. Later another attack was made and after H. G. Kellum, a car conductor, was killed and many on both sides wounded the sheriff and his deputies were overpowered, Shaw was dragged out of his cell, and hanged to an electric light post. While he swung fully 500 bullets were fired in his body.

Riddled with bullets the body of Leander Shaw was cut down today from the electric light pole in the public square. His alleged victim, Mrs. Lillian Davis, is still alive, but will probably die as the result of a slash in the throat inflicted by her assailant. The town is comparatively quiet today, but it is not improbable that further trouble may ensue as Sheriff Van Pelt is blamed for his obstinate resistance by many whose relatives were wounded in the battle. Developments today show that in the struggle at the jail father fought against son and brother against brother.

It was learned today that the negro yesterday afternoon, thinking his death near, summoned Rev. E. V. Galloway, a white minister and asked his prayers but stoutly denied his guilt and stated he had no part in or knowledge of the crime.

Still a Mystery.

New York, July 30.—The positive refusal of the police to give out the result of the "sweating" of James Rudderck, the stable man who discovered the burning corpse of a woman on a Greenpoint, Brooklyn, lot yesterday, is strengthening the belief that the man told something of importance. The police, however, are doing their best to discourage this belief.

The coroner's physician, Dr. Wuest, today reported that he had completed an autopsy on the woman's remains and had ascertained that her throat had been cut and her wind pipe punctured at least 12 hours before her body was fired.

The victim be reports to have been about 30 years old, well nourished and to have borne children.

That more than one person had a hand in the murder and the burning is the police belief.

The police now believe that the body is that of Mrs. Stanley Moskevitch, who disappeared on Monday last with her husband, a Pole, who said he would take her to Stanford Conn., although the woman protested against going. Later the husband was seen alone.

To Buy a Trophy.

London, July 30.—Matthew P. Halpin, manager of the American Olympic team, announced today that as soon as he returns to America he will begin the collection of a fund with which to purchase a trophy for Dorando, the Italian runner in the Marathon, who finished first, but was disqualified for receiving assistance, which permitted first honors to go to John J. Hayes, the American.

General Drain, who captained the American team, is mourning the loss of two of the gold medals won by the American shooters in the recent contests. They were stolen from his rooms in the Victoria Hotel, along with some jewelry belonging to his wife. The Drain apartments were entered while the general and his wife were out for a walk.

The Dutch Still Angry.

The Hague, July 30.—The commander of the Dutch battleship Jacob van Heemskerch was ordered today to get his ship in readiness for sailing to Curacao, to join the cruiser Gelderland. This battleship will be the first of the six vessels that have been ordered to the Carribean sea to arrive there, as the others are now in East Indian waters. The ministry of marine will divulge none of its plans regarding a movement against Venezula, meeting all inquiries with the statement that there will be time enough to decide on a course after the Dutch fleet has assembled off Curacao.

Attempted Suicide.

Cleveland, O., July 30.—A young woman, handsomely dressed, attempted suicide in the Erie passenger station here at noon today. She was found in the lavatory, with a bullet through the mouth, another in the left eye. A pearl handled revolver lay beside her. She had been observed by depot attaches waiting around the station for over an hour before she shot herself.

A Mother's Threat.

New York, July 30.—"I will kill that man as surely as I am alive." That threat shouted by the aged mother of Barbara Reig in the court room when a coroner's jury branded the girl who was shot dead in Irving Square Park a suicide and exonerated Policeman David Shellard has resulted in a double police guard being placed over the woman today. Shellard, who had admitted being with the girl at her death, was in one corner of the court room surrounded by a score of police who have strained every nerve to protect him and in another corner were the mother and sister of the dead girl and her fiance, Arthur Hack.

When the jury announced the verdict, the policemen crowded about Shellard hugging and congratulating him. For a moment the other group seemed stunned, then Mrs. Thompson, sister of the Reig girl, leaped to her feet screaming as she pointed at Shellard, "You murderer, you murderer!" The mother also started toward the policeman and then raising her hand above her head shrieked:

"I will kill that man as surely as I am alive."

Such excitement ensued that Coroner Brewer feared a riot and ordered the court room cleared.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was given despite the testimony of a woman who declared Barbara Reig had told her that Shellard had threatened murder and of Dr. Samuel Hubbard, who declared it impossible that the girl, as the police contend, had fired the shot that slew her with Shellard's revolver.

Mob Violence.

London, July 30.—A serious anti-Jewis demonstration by a mob of 25-000 followed the acquittal of Robert Sievier today at Old Bailey on a charge of attempting to black mail J. B. (Jakey) Joel, the millioniare nephew of the late Barney Barnato, the diamond king. The mob first attempted to get at Joel, but the jail attendants hustled him out a side door into a handsom, which was driven madly away. The infuriated crowd which completely packed the streets around the jail, then began maltreating the Jews, who were present.

Hundreds of police reserves were called out and after a fierce fight with the mob succeeded in clearing the street.

The attack on the Jews had no other provocation than that Joel, whose suit against Sievier enraged the thousands of friends of the latter, is a Jew.

Sievier was accused of threatening Joel with the publication of damaging stories in his sporting paper, the Winning Post, unless Joel gave him $25,000 Joel entered into a contract with Sievier, gave him a check for this amount and then had him arrested on a blackmailing charge.

Sievier's defense was that the transaction was a legitimate loan. Sievier is a race horse owner, actor, bookmaker, editor, soldier of fortune and one of the most popular men in London.

Love at First Sight.

Philadelphia, July 30.—Charles MacGregor and Estelle Myers Snack, both of Baltimore, now Mr. and Mrs. MacGregor after a record-breaking wooing, are enjoying their honeymoon at Atlantic City today. MacGregor is a wealthy real estate dealer. The rapid fire courtship of the couple started when they met accidentally in Broad street late yesterday. They had never seen each other before, but in fifteen minutes they had become convinced that it was a sure case of love at first sight. Miss Snack dropped her purse. MacGregor picked it up. Then they conversed for a few minutes, he proposed, was accepted, they got a license and in an hour they were married.

Shoot to Kill.

Great Neck, L. I., July 30.—Infuriated by the activity of incendiaries in this vicinity residents of the "millionaire colonies" of Great Neck, Nassau, Port Washington and other sections of Long Island held a meeting today and formed a corps of vigilantes to check their depredations. The millionaires, they say, will shoot to kill any man detected in the act of lighting a blaze. Fires of almost daily occurrence on the estates of the wealthy residents have caused them great annoyance but the destruction of the Bayside Yacht Club house was the last straw.

The Big Oil Fire.

Tampico, Mex., July 30.—The oil fire that has been raging for several weeks in San Geronimo district, is today burning fiercer than ever. Oil experts are convinced that the flames are being fed from a subterranean lake that drains a large part of the coast oil fields in Texas and Mexico and that before it is extinguished this immense territory will be seriously crippled. Several days ago it appeared that the flames were subsiding but a fresh impetus has now been given to the fire. It is this fact that leads the experts to believe that the different fields have under ground connections.

The Sultan.

Constantinople, July 30.—Partially heeding the demands of his people to dismiss the obnoxious camarilla that has surrounded him for so long, the sultan, today, made known that Rami Pasha, minister of marine; Izzet, chamberlain to the sultan; Zeekki Pasha, an inspector of military schools, and Selim Pasha, minister of mines, have been discharged. The announcement did much to strengthen the belief that the sultan is sincere in his promise of reform, though there still remain a number of persons in the sultan's councils whom the people oppose and whose dismissal is demanded. Until an entirely new ministery is established the demonstrations against the sultan will continue.

A Modest Demand.

Seagirt, N. J., July 30.—Ten million dollars is all the black hand wants from Governor Fort of New Jersey. The state executive today announced that he had received the modest demand on a post card mailed from Atlantic City. It was without signature and read.

Governor Mr. Fort, Dear Sir:

Leave $10,000,000 at the bridge leading from Trenton to Morrisville Friday, July 31, on pain of death."

The black hander sent his demand to Trenton evidently supposing the governor to be there, whereas he has been conducting the state business from here for weeks.

Kodol will without doubt help anyone who has stomach disorders or stomach troubles Take Kodol today and continue it for the short time that is necessary to give you complete relief. Kodol is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Married Long Ago.

Berlin, July 30.—The kaiser has been thwarted in his attempt to prevent the marriage of Prince Joachim Albrecht, of Prussia and Maro Sulzer, the notorious dance hall woman, the courtship of which has scandalized the German court for the last two years. News of the marriage of the couple on August 15 last became public today after every attempt had been made to keep it secret. It was nearly a year ago that the Sulzer woman, who was the Baroness Liebenburg, secured a divorce from the baron, to whom she paid $7,500 to marry her in order that she might acquire a title and be eligible to marry Prince Joachim.

The Baron, an Austrian, was paid $3,500 at the time of his marriage and was to receive the remainder upon the granting of the divorce. Through failure to pay one of the installments the baron held up the divorce proceedings.

When the princess mad infatuation for a woman of such low rank became the talk of Germany, the Kaiser banished him to Africa, thinking that he would come to his senses in a short time. The baroness was also ordered to leave Berlin by the police. She took up her residence in Paris.

The moment the baroness matrimonial tangle was straightened out, the Prince appeared on the scene again and despite all the warnings of his friends and threats of banishment from Austria, he joined the baroness and the two were married in Zrnich. The prince intimates that he will henceforth live in America.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Charles H. Moyer has been re-elected president of the Western Federation of Miners.

Balked in their efforts to have "Nan" Patterson run out of Pittsburg, the city police department and the bureau of detectives are in an uproar today. "Nan," however, is still in the city and says she intends to remain there.

The Bergen county, N. J., grand jury today returned an indictment charging August Eberhard with murdering his aunt, Mrs. Ottilie Eberhard, at Rochelle Park on Sunday, July 19.

The family of Joseph Chamberlain, concerning whose health alarming reports have been spread, announced today that reports are greatly exaggerated. His stay in London before proceeding to his home in Birmingham is not due to physicial weakness, it is stated, but for pleasure.

Suit to enjoin the proposed merger of lumber companies operating throughout the United States into a $300,000,000 combine to control the yellow pine industry, was today brought into the Circuit Court at St. Louis, by Attorney General Hadley. Judge Kinsey granted a temporary injunction restraining the organization of the combine and fixed August 17 for a hearing.

"Absolutely absurd" is the brand Judge Taft placed upon the story that Congressman Sherman is to retire as the republican vice presidential candidate and be succeeded by Governor Sheldon, of Nebraska. The judge and his family arrived at Hot Springs today from Cincinnati. At Huntington, W. Va., an enthusiastic republican discharged his revolver alongside the Taft car and caused the trainmen to turn out. As the shots were fired in the car the Taft enthusiastic was not rebuked even though his celebration was pulled off at 1:35 a. m.

The Gill balloon, containing Mr. Ernest Gill and Messrs. Lincoln and Hillery Beachey, which was to have made the aerial trip from Baltimore to New York yesterday, left Electric Park at 1:16 o'clock in the afternoon and landed in the suburbs of Hagerstown, Md., shortly after 5 o'clock, on the farm of County Commissioner David F. Nigh, of Washington county. The distance traveled was about 85 miles. The occupants returned to Baltimore. R. G. Williams was probably fatally injured by falling from a roof while watching the aeronauts at Hagerstown.

"They want me because I ran away with another man's wife. This embezzlement charge is nonsense," said Edward N. Hobson, who says he is a cousin of Richmond Pearson Hobson' when arraigned in New York today. Hobson, who is 23 years old and married, gave his address as No. 2414 G street, Washington, when arrested on a telegraphic request of the Washington police. He was held in $500 bail a charge of embezzleing from the New York Horse Insurance Company of Washington and in a default of a bondsman went to the Tombs. Who the woman is with whom Hobson eloped he will not say.

Directors of the Wabash Railroad met in New York today in what is believed to be an attempt to save the wreck of George Gould's eastern properties, the Wheeling and Lake Erie, Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal and Western Maryland from falling into the hands of E. H. Harriman syndicate. Financial men look upon the Gould-Harriman deal as a complete victory for Harriman.

LICENSE PROVES GUILT.

Attention among the temperance and anti-temperance people of this state will be attracted by the decision recently by the court of appeals, in the case of H. H. Runde vs. the commonwealth, which came up to the higher tribunal from the Circuit Court of Lancaster.

The opinion rendered by the judges of the appellate court in effect holds that the mere possession of a liquor license from the United States government is prima facie evidence of violation of the state laws unless the holder also has been duly licensed by the commonwealth to sell ardent spirits.

In short, the burden of proof in such cases is on the defendant to show that he has not been guilty of such violations.

STARVING IN SWAMP.

Andrew Honza, charged with killing Mrs. Annie Kocur, wealthy widow of the former "King of the Poles" o Granite City, Ill., was found by the police yesterday half dead in the "sand pike," a swamp two miles southeast of there, where he had been hiding in the woods since the crime Sunday night. Honza had been without food three days. In his despair and terror he had tried to end his life by stabbing himself over the heart, but his hand lacked nerve and strength and the wound only weakened him. He was armed when found, but offered no resistance. Honza is said to have told his captors that he shot Mrs. Kocur after a quarrel over the storing of some of his furniture. Mrs. Kocur's 14-year-old son, Andrew, who witnessed the tragedy, said Honza made improper advances to his mother, which she refused, and that Honza was enraged thereat.

New York Stock Market.

Richmond, July 30.—Trading during the first hour was extremely quiet. The room traders worked for a reaction in Union Pacific, causing fractional declines in that stock. The other Gould issues made fractional gains. Before midday nearly everything on the floor showed a better tone.

Over Thirty-five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Mannell, Maryland block, Butte Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '09, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 72

DIVIDE VIRGINIA TROOPS.

The Seventieth Regiment in camp at Chickamauga Park, Ga., was divided yesterday into two parties, Major Martin's and Major King's battalions constituting a brown army, under Lieutenant-Colonel Craighill, and the Richmond battalion, under Major Cary, being a blue army. The browns were to make the attack and the blues to defend a position on Snodgrass Hill. The battle was hotly contested, the men being extremely enthusiastic, and the officers very intelligent. The Virginia troops are expected to break camp Friday.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy which cured him and believe that it saved his life.—William H. Strolling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt that this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Plans are being completed today for a life sized bronze statue of Grover Cleveland, to be erected in Chicago by the Union League Club. It will cost $10C,-000 and will probably be unveiled March 18, next, the 72nd anniversary of Cleveland's birth.

DIED.

JOHN McBLAIR, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Walker, died yesterday at half past four o'clock, aged 2 months 5 days.

The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy
In death's cold arms doth lie.
God needed one more angel child
Amidst His shining band,
And so He bent with loving smile
And clasped our darling's hand.

BY HIS FATHER AND MOTHER.

Funeral this afternoon at 5 o'clock from the residence, 327 north Henry street.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The First Baptist Church held its annual business meeting last evening, which was preceded by a song and prayer service. The reports of the officers of the church both financially and numerically were most encouraging in view of the fact that the church was without a pastor for 3 months. During the past year 42 were received by baptism 4 by letter, 2 by experience and 4 by restoration. A large sum of money was raised during the past year for various objects of beneficence. The present membership of the church is 729. The annual election of officers was held which resulted as follows: Clerk, James R. Mansfield; treasurer, Sam'l. W. Pitts; director of music, J. T. Preston; organist, Mrs. Walter Bolton. Messengers to attend the Potomac Association which will meet with the Mount Hope Church, Loudoun county, August 12th, Messrs. W. P. Kerrick, J. T. Preston, N. L. Williamson and J. W. Langley. The church also confirmed the election of the following officers of the Sunday School which were elected last Sunday morning by the Teachers' Association of the school; superintendent, James R. Mansfield; assistant supterintendent Sam'l. W. Pitts; secretary, Floyd G. Saunders; assistant secretary, Harvey Frances; treasurer, N. L. Williamson; director of music, J. T. Preston; pianist, Miss Mary E. Williamson; librarian, Walter P. Kerrick. Rev. W. F. Watson, the new pastor, will assume charge of the church on next Sunday.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Brown took place from the residence of her niece, Mrs. N. R. Haddox, on north Fairfax street, at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon and was largely attended. The funeral services were held at 3 o'clock, Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale officiating. The following were the pallbaers: Messrs. Fred Kaus, Fred Geisendaffer, M. Self, J. W. Hammond, B. F. Bettis and C. M. Schwab. The interment was in Bethel.

The little son of Samuel Walker died at his parent's residence yesterday on north Henry street. The funeral will take place at 5 o'clock this afternoon and the remains will be interred in Bethel cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. Chas. D. Bulla.

AROUND THE WHARVES.

There is nothing of note transpiring around the wharves today. A number of small sailing and power boats are being repaired, and a great many vessels which have no business to engage in are tied up at the various docks. The dock being built by Mr. DeW. Aitcheson is about half completed and will be an ornament to the city when finished as well as very convenient to the owner, whose business has assumed large proportions. At Agnew's shipyard things are a little dull, a tugboat being the only boat there for repairs. Notwithstanding the dullness the mascot, a tramp three-legged dog which has been cared for by the kindly disposed around the wharves, can be seen visiting his usual places every morning.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There were only two cases before the court this morning:

Benjamin Hamilton, colored, arrested by Officers Gill and Young charged with lunacy, was sent to jail for 10 days.

Chief Goods has received word from the police department of Baltimore to look out for three men who have robbed the sporting house of A. G. Alford & Co.

Two cows and a calf were arrested this afternoon by Officer Rawlett for trespassing on the property of Mr. E. E. Downham. They are held at the station house.

FLOUR INSPECTOR.

Notwithstanding the fact that Governor Swanson named Mr. Fred Kaus as Flour Inspector of the city last January that gentleman has not as yet qualified and the work of the office is being efficiently performed by Mr. R. H. Hancock, who was the deputy under the late Thomas Perry. It is understood that the newly appointed inspector says there is no reason for qualifying as he can fill the office without such action. This may be true, but it seems that he has neither qualified nor inspected a barrel of flour since appointed. But the inspection goes on just the same.

TESTING OLD ENGINE.

The old reserve engine Columbia, which the City Counsil permitted to be taken to Harrisonburg, on the occasion of the State Firemen's Convention to be held in August, was hauled to the wharf at the foot of Wolfe street yesterday afternoon and tested. While the result was not entirely satisfactory the members expect to have the engine in repair in a few days.

TAKEN OFF THE ROUTE.

The trip down the river today of the steamer General Lee, which took the place of the Trenton, while the latter steamer was undergoing repairs in Norfolk, will be the last seen of the General Lee on this river. The Trenton will return to this city tomorrow and resume her place on the lower river route. She will be commanded by the officers that are now in charge of the General Lee.

EXPECTS TO BE KILLED.

Benjamin Hamilton, a well-known colored barber, is locked up at the police station, charged with lunacy, superinduced by cheap whisky and common gin. Ben has been before the court often but this time he's seeing things. One of his hobbies is that he is about to be lynched.

COMPANY G.

The following letter was received today from Capt. F. L. Slaymaker, of Company G, of this city, now in camp at Chickamauga, Ga.:

Chickamauga, Ga., July 28.

The men are all well and enjoying themselves and learning fast. We will leave on Friday and reach home some time Saturday evening. I would like you to give notice that Mr. R. E. Knight will put out a bulletin giving the hour we are expected to arrive. I will wire him from the train when I can tell the hour, and will let him know. I want him to give the notice. Our company has made quite a fine record for good behavior and drill, and has attracted much attention in the regiment, where it is known how new we are in the service, and many have remarked at the fine drill we put up. Thanking you for any favorable notice you may give us, I am

Very truly yours,
F. L. SLAYMAKER.

The following is taken from the Chattanooga (Tenn.) News: "The boys are daily becoming more efficient in their work. Company G, of the Seventieth Virginia Regiment, the youngest company in the regiment (having only been organized two weeks), were complimented twice yesterday in the drills by the umpire for their surprising ability and efficiency gained in the short time they have been drilled.

SECURED THE CHILDREN.

As has been frequently mentioned the case of Mrs. George Wright, of Camden, N. J., and a young man of Alexandria, named Harvey Allen, has attracted considerable attention not only in this city but at the home of the woman. It will be remembered that Wright followed his wife to this city where, he claimed, she had come with this man, Allen. He found her at Allen's home and persuded her to return to Camden. Upon arriving at the latter place, it is claimed she again met Allen. It is said an agreement was reached between the two to have the husband arrested for non-support and this, it said, happened. The husband was locked up at Camden; the couple, it is claimed pillaged the premises and sold everything including Wright's clothes, while he was incarcerated, and returned to Washington, where the woman placed her two children in a home, by claiming she was an Alexandria widow without support. The husband after serving his time came to this city yesterday and with the assistance of Officer Garvey located the children and today they are on their way back home. The woman, who is supposed to be with Allen, could not be found.

DEATH OF MR. FITZHUGH.

Mr. Harry Mead Fitzhugh, whose illness was recently mentioned in the Gazette, died at his home at Fairfax yesterday, aged about 60 years. Mr. Fitzhugh was well-known in this city where he formerly lived. For a number of years he was connected with the firms of R. M. Lawson and R. B. Lawson & Co. Later he secured a position under the District of Columbia government, which he held till the time of his death. Mr. Fitzhugh married Miss Alice Jackson, a daughter of the late Capt. James W. Jackson, who was proprietor of the Marshall House in this city at the beginning of the war and who was killed in that house after he had killed Col. Ellsworth, of the New York Fire Zouaves, who had hauled down the Confederate flag which was flying from the roof. His wife died several years ago. Mr. Fitzhugh leaves one daughter, Mrs. Alice Deming. His funeral will take place from his late home tomorrow evening at 2 o'clock.

DOG DETAINS STEAMER.

Much amusement was created at the Prince street wharf last night by the antics of "Crip," a crippled dog which frequents that wharf and which is a favorite thereabouts. The dog, as soon as the steamer Jamestown made her landing, ran up the gangway plank onto the steamer and did not stop till he had reached the hurricane deck, seeming determined to take a river trip. The steamer was delayed some time in her departure till several of the deck hands could capture "Crip" and lead him off the boat, which was finally done, much to the amusement of all the passengers and those standing on the wharf.

IMPROVEMENTS.

The tide of improvements has extended in a large measure to the northwestern section of the city and many property holders are beautifying the premises owned by them. Not less than ten or twelve granolithic pavements have been finished and the buildings improved until that section of the city compares favorably with any other. In addition to the improvements made by Mr. John A. Marshall the Kramer Floral Co are having a granolithic pavement laid the entire length of their property.

COLORED SUMMER SCHOOL.

Principal J. F. Parker, of the colored boys school, has returned from Manassas, where he went to attend the summer school for colored teachers, which has just closed its session there. He says that whereas the school was not so largely attended as during some other years the course of instruction was excellent and the work done very good. He is the only one of the colored teachers from this city who attended.

TO WORK ON ROADS.

At the request of Superintendent of the Penitentiary Morgan Judge Barley directed City Sergeant Cox today to turn over to the proper officers four prisoners confined in the city jail who are capable of doing work on the county roads. The men turned over and who will be taken to Richmond are Edward Bryant, Wm. Smith, George Wilson and George Coleman, all colored.

FAILURE TO REPORT.

Two well known local physicians were cited to appear in the Police Court this morning to show cause why they should not be fined for failure to report to the health officer a case of chickenpox, as is required by the city ordinances. The complaint was made by Health Officer Gorman, who stated that the physicians last week had declared the case in question chickenpox and that he had received no official report of the same. In their defense the physicians stated that they were ignorant of the existence of such an ordinance, that they had no intention or desire to evade or disregard the law and that, if desired, they would make report of this particular case as well as of all such cases in future that might come under their care. The court stated that it would not impose a fine in this case, but would let the case bring this ordinance to the attention of all practicing physicians that there might be no further infractions thereof.

MOTION PICTURES.

The amusement lovers of this city are nightly receiving rare treats at the two motion picture houses. Tonight the Alexandria Amusement Company will put on "The Strong Man" and "Thirteen at the Table," two very funny reels. Two of those seen last night will be repeated.

At the Opera House the excellent show of last night will be repeated in order to give those who have not seen it a chance to witness a fine performance.

MR. BRYAN'S VIEWS.

Charging that Wm. H. Taft "is not satisfied with the work of the Chicago convention," which nominated him as the republican candidate for the presidency, and that "he is deeply impressed with the work of the democratic convention," Wm. J. Bryan yesterday issued a statement, in which he expresses the opinion that Mr. Taft "fears the uprising which republican abuses have caused, and yet hesitates to adopt his real and substantial reforms."

Continuing he says: "The most notable feature of his speech is his attempt to amend the republican platform by engrafting on it some of the planks of the democratic platform. He is evidently not satisfied with the work of his convention and is deeply impressed by the work of the democratic convention He is uncharitable, however, in not giving the democratic party credit for having pointed out the reforms which his own convention repudiated, but which he in a half-hearted way indorses."

Mr. Bryan says he will answer Mr. Taft's address part at a time in various speeches.

I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by W. F. the molasses feed that is surprising even the old time dairy feeders, and try it on one of your cows. This feed will build up a cow's physical powers, furnish her lacteal organs with milk making nutrition to such a degree that her flow will increase 20 per cent. THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 30 1908

Africans and the Locomotive.

The children of the desert were filled with awe when first the silence of the primeval solitude was broken by the puffing of the steam engine. Down at the other end of the Cape to Cairo line the simple Matabele, when first confronted by a locomotive, were certain that the strange machine was worked by the labor of an indefinite number of oxen, which they assumed were shut up inside; hence, when the engine stopped, they gathered in curious crowds, waiting to see the door open and the oxen come out, nor could they for many days be persuaded that the power of the locomotive could come from other than the strength of the ox.

The Arabs of the Sudan, more imaginative than the Matabele, saw in the fire horses of the railway one of the Djinns of the "Arabian Nights" harnessed by the magic of the infidel to the long train of cars. The steam engine was to them a living, sentient being, of which belief there is curious evidence in the fact that on one occasion a sheik made an impassioned remonstrance against the cruelty of making so small an engine draw so huge a train.

Composite Names.

"One of the differences between the east and the northwest," said a Puget sounder, "is the names of places, and the Skikomishes, the Snohomishes, the Snoqualmies, the Wahkiakums and the lot of them give a man funny feelings, and when he runs across Bucoda, on the Northern Pacific railroad in Pierce county, Wash., he doesn't know whether it is Chinook or Siwash or what. But it is none of them—like Kenova, in West Virginia, which is near the junction of Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia, or Delmar, where Delaware and Maryland come together. Bucoda is a composite name, and its story is simple enough. When the Northern Pacific came in a town sprang up, and it must have a name. There were Indian names in plenty, but something more novel was wanted, so Messrs. Buckley, Coulter and Davis, all Northern Pacific officials, put their heads together first and their names later, and the name Bu-co-da was evolved, with an etymology very apparent to any one who is at all informed in terminology. Bucoda it has remained, and it is not half bad as names go in the Puget sound country."

Beggars on Horseback.

"'Whoa, thar,' he says, pullin' up his hoss, and then he whines:

"'For the love o' charity, kind gent, would ye be so good as to gimme a crust o' bread for meself and a handful o' oats for the old mare?'"

The sailor smiled thoughtfully and stirred his ice cream soda with a long spoon.

"Yes, Hal," he resumed, "there's actual beggars on horseback in Roosia. They travels from town to town in caravans. They beg grub for themselves and fodder for their nags, just as I been tellin' ye.

"O' course, in the Argentine, where a hoss don't cost a song, it's only natural ye should see beggars on horseback, and I ain't sayin' nothin' about that. But in China they ride, too, while there's a Maltese beggar down Malta way what even drives a spring wagon an' takes his gal along. Interrupts his canoodlin' to ask you for a copper to stave off starvation, then starts right in again where he left off."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

An Unaccountable Failing.

It was a severe trial to Mr. Harding that his only son's memory was not all that could be desired. "Where in the world he got such a forgetful streak from is beyond me," said the exasperated father to his wife on one occasion.

"What has he forgotten now?" asked Mrs. Harding, with eyes downcast and a demure expression.

"The figures of the last return from the election on the bulletin board." And Mr. Harding inserted a finger in his collar as if to loosen it and shook his head vehemently. "Looked at 'em as he came past not half an hour ago, and now can't tell me.

"As I said to him, 'If you're so stupid you can't keep a few simple figures in your head, why don't you write 'em down on a piece of paper, as I do, and have done all my life, long before I was your age?'"

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels.
